The Archangel Michael appears in the Old and New Testaments, the Apocrypha and the Quran where he is seen as a protector and leader of the army of God against the forces of evil. In the Book of Daniel, Michael appears as 'one of the chief princes' of the heavenly host and as the special guardian and protector of Israel [Dan. 10:13 ff. and 12:1] In Revelation 12:7-9, Michael is the principal fighter in the heavenly battle against the devil, 'who was cast down to earth and his angels were thrown down with him." In the Apocryphal "Testament of Abraham" he is the principal character whose intercession is so powerful that he can rescue souls from hell.
